

Cherish the best in you!

The learners of Grade 6, made an attempt to know their positive traits from their peers. This mindful activity paved the way for expressing mutual respect for each other - an indispensable attribute of a healthy classroom. Furthermore, boosting confidence and better understanding among themselves.