

Experience the interdependence

The natural world is a tapestry, woven from the threads of both living and non-living entities, each playing a crucial role in maintaining the balance of the ecosystem. The learners of Grade 3 , fervently explored the distinctive attributes of living and non-living things, thereby appreciating the complexity and interconnectedness of the environment.