

Aspire, Believe, Culminate – It's me

The learners of Grade 1, showed remarkable excitement as they created their own 'Identity Cards'. They meticulously followed the steps, thereby creating their first 'Identity cards'. This interactive learning experience has not only cultivated a deep appreciation of personal information but also enriched their understanding of self-awareness.

