

Math Minds in Motion

The learners of Grade 2, explored the intricate realm of place value during their mathematics project. Through this hands-on activity and engaging lesson, they have acquired the ability to identify and comprehend the significance of digits in various positions. This foundational skill is pivotal to strengthen their numerical competency.

