

Hopping from Ones to Crores!

The learners of grade 6, reinforced their understanding and engagement with the foundational mathematical concept - Place Value. Such an approach provides a great insight for learning place value, comparing, ordering and manipulating numbers.

