

VIHAA
INTERNATIONAL SCHOOL

1st October '25

Hands-on Fun: Enhancing Fine Motor Skills Through Lacing Activities

Students thoroughly enjoyed the lacing activity, which helped them develop fine motor skills such as the tripod grasp, pincer grasp, and finger dexterity—skills essential for handwriting, buttoning clothes, and tying shoes laces. Much like stacking activities, lacing also enhances their motor planning and bilateral coordination skills.