

Articulating Nature with a Ray of Sunshine

Freshening up with nature, where words flow freely

The learners of Grade 1, attempted creative writing by observing their surroundings and indulging in discussions with their peers. By employing this technique, the learners tried to connect the writing process with oral expressions, thereby enhancing their oratory skills. This activity served as an opportunity to enrich their cognitive mechanism.

