

Math Matters : Integers In Action

Our Grade 6 learners explored integer addition through a hands-on activity using coloured caps to represent positive and negative numbers

This engaging approach helped them visualize and understand the rules of adding integers, building a strong foundation for future mathematical concepts.

