

"Beat by Beat : Discovering the Wonders of the Heart"

Our Learners of Grade 5 created a 3D heart model, learnt about the heart's structure and function, and had fun making their own models using clay and other materials.

The learners gained practical knowledge of heart anatomy and developed creativity which enhanced their understanding of human health

