

Mould Matters -The Mystery on Bread Slice

The learners of Grade 7 conducted an exciting Biology Experiment to observe growth of bread mould, kept in a closed container. This hands-on experience made Science come alive sparking curiosity and deep learning.

Mould on bread is fuzzy and green. It grows where damp and dark are seen
Tiny spores float light as air, Spreading quickly everywhere

