

“Rainbow Magic in Little Hands”

The children played with colors so bright,
They made rainbows that sparkled with light.
Their smiles had painted the classroom with delight.

The little learners had a wonderful time exploring colors as they created their own rainbows. They mixed, painted, and watched the colors brighten up their papers like magic. The activity filled the classroom with excitement and joy, while children learned about the beauty of colors in a playful way.

